JUROR: Shawn Kennedy

is a practicing artist and educator from Amarillo, Texas. He graduated from Amarillo High School and earned a Bachelors of Fine Arts in Drawing and Painting from the University of North Texas. At UNT, he received the Outstanding Undergraduate in Studio Art and exhibited in galleries throughout Dallas and Fort Worth. In 2004, he relocated back to Amarillo and began his teaching career, while continuing to build his gallery resume. He works as a freelance designer and advocate for community growth through art, working with students across the state of Texas. Kennedy currently exhibits work throughout Texas, New Mexico and Colorado, presenting shows at such notable galleries as 500X, The Powerstation, GalleryArtSpace, Artspace 111, The Lincoln Center, Eula Mae Edwards Museum, Contemporary Art Museum of Plainview and the Charles Adams Gallery in addition to being published in Studio Visit Volume 28.

Kennedy's body of artwork confronts subcultures, commercialism, working class ideologies and the transmutation of ideas. His work confronts the popularity and dissemination of iconography as it applies to mass culture and what defines contemporary society. His most recent work reacts to the habits of consumerism and how it defines our identity and commodifies the purpose of the artist and negates the intended purpose of creativity. Kennedy strives to explore the void in meaning and create art that says nothing over and over again.

Kennedy is the founder and director of the local, state and national-award winning student art collective Studio 502 and is employed by AISD as the drawing and painting instructor at Caprock High School. In addition, he works in developing and instructing online art history courses for the Texas Virtual School Network. In 2005 he was chosen Bowie Teacher of the Year and in 2018 was named Secondary Teacher of the Year for Amarillo Independent School District; currently Kennedy is the President of the Texas Panhandle Art Education Association. He is married to his wife Stephanie with whom he has three teenage daughters – Jayci, Brooklyn and Madeline. They also have a bunch of irreverent dogs and a cat.

Events • Advocacy • Excellence

As your arts council, the Lubbock Arts Alliance:

- Supports local artists and arts organizations through services and programming
- Provides leadership to encourage economic development through the arts
- Develops positive publicity and support for the arts
- Works to establish Lubbock as a regional arts destination for visitors and tourists

Lubbock Arts Alliance has a proven track record of bringing the arts and outside resources together to achieve tangible results. The organization produces the largest community-wide celebration of the arts (the annual Lubbock Arts Festival) and provides other programming and services that benefit local artists and arts organizations (like Artist Studio Tour).

Representatives from other arts organizations, artists and patrons comprise the Board of the Lubbock Arts Alliance.
